NEW TIME TABLE MONDAY.

Winter Train Schedule Calls For Several Changes in Local Trains.

The winter arrangement of the train service will be inaugurated next Monday and the changes are about the same as are usually made at this season of the year. On the Connecticut and Passumpsic division of the Boston and Maine the time of departure of the trains from St. Johnsbury will be as follows: Going north: 3, 3.14 and 10.47 a. m.; 3.53, 4.17 and 7.02 p. m. Going south, 1.19, 1.23, 8.52 and 11.40 a. m.; 2.20 and 5.25 p. m.

The time table for the Lake road has not been received, but it is known that the early morning train going east and the evening train going west will be discontinued for the winter as well as the night train both ways through the White Mountains. The mail train going west will leave at 4.20 p. m., making connection with the mail train from the south. A new feature of the winter service will be the establishment of a parlor car service from Montreal to Portland, the afternoon trains on the Lake road carrying a parlor car which will also be equipped for a buffet service.

CHURCH NOTES.

Morning services are held Sunday at 10.30 by all the churches. Sunday school immediately after. The Second Advent church holds its second service at 6.30; for the other churches the time of the second service is 7.00. Mid-week meetings are held at 7.30 p. m. Wednesday. St. Andrew's Church celebrates Holy Communion each Sunday at 7.30 a. m. excepting the first Sunday of the month; also on Holy days at 10 a. m. The Y. M. C. A. rooms are open on week days from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m.; on Sundays from 2 to 6 p. m. The Salvation Army has meetings Thursday, Saturday and Sunday evenings at 8 p. m.

The churches named above unite in cordially inviting friends and strangers to these services.

At Notre Dame des Victoires church services every Sunday are as follows: 7.30 a. m., first mass; 9.00, children's mass; 10.30, high mass; 4.00 p. m., vespers.

At St. Aloysius church the Sunday services are: Children's Mass at 8 a. m.; High Mass at 10 a. m.; evening service at 7 o'clock.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Pythian Building, Sunday morning service 10.45. Subject, "Unreality." The reading room is in the same building and is open daily, except Sunday, from 2.30 to 5 p. m.

About 35 young people were very pleasantly entertained in the parlors of the South church last Friday evening. Games were played and a very dainty supper was served.

On Sunday morning at Grace church the pastor will again give a special address to children on "The Bible." In the evening he will deliver a special address to young people on "Having an Aim in Life."

First Baptist church, 10.30. Subject, "How to Deal Temperance to Knowledge." 7.00 p. m., the pastor will begin a series of sermons on "Axioms of Religion," taking up subjects that everyone is thinking about. Subject for next Sunday, "The Power of the Soul."

Next Sunday will be rally Sunday at the North church. At the morning worship Mr. Hill will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion. There will be special exercises at the opening of the Sunday school when Milo Brown, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will speak. A new feature will be introduced in the afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, at which hour on the first Sunday in each month a vesper service will be held. These will be the regular monthly musical services of the winter and winter season. At the service on Sunday the choir, augmented, will give the cantata "The Holy City" by Gaul, and there will be a ten minute address. These addresses will be a series of lessons from some of the strong moral plays of recent production. The address on Sunday will treat of "Everyman," a morality play of the 16th century, the subject being "The Inevitable End."

Free Baptist church. Next Sunday morning the pastor will preach the second sermon of the series on Men and Religion. Subject, Revelation's Missing Chapter. This will be an attempted harmony of Egyptian and Assyrian history, Science and the Bible. (Problem, If the Egyptians were Hamites, then, according to Genesis Chs. 10 and 11, the population of the country must have begun at the birth of Noah and the confusion of tongues at Babel, dated 2247 B. C. Yet the beginning of the first Egyptian dynasty is dated 4800 B. C. Here is an apparent discrepancy of 2553 years; and not content with that science steps in and widens the gap.) Come and see what you think of our solution.

Sunday will be observed as Rally day by the Sunday school of the Church of the Messiah. There will be special exercises and a roll call of classes. Each teacher is requested to inform the members of his or her class. All friends of the school invited.

Sunday evening W. R. Rowland, M. D., State president of the Y. P. C. U., and a powerful pastor in social service work in Vermont, will speak in the vestry of the Church of the Messiah. He comes under the auspices of the Y. P. C. U. Everybody invited.

All members of the Y. P. C. U. of the Church of the Messiah are invited to a corn roast at Everett Montgomery's, Spaulding Neighborhood, Friday evening, Sept. 29.

In recognition of the "Men and Religion Forward Movement" in behalf of the Christian life of the men and boys of North America, the theme of the morning sermon at the South church will be "The Meaning of Religion to Men and the Meaning of Men to Religion." It is planned to make this a "Rally Day" for the men of the congregation.

THE PROGRESSIVE DINNER.

A Great Rush of People Fed at the Different Churches—Good Sum Realized.

The progressive dinner on Thursday evening proved a success beyond the fondest dreams of the committee who arranged it and not only was it a success, but the financial standpoint, 370 tickets being sold with practically no expenses, but seldom has anything given here brought together all ages and all creeds, as did this affair. Instead of waiting until six o'clock to eat supper, people began to arrive at the First Baptist church soon after five o'clock and from then until long after seven there was one mad chase from church to church for the different courses.

At the First Baptist church apples, oranges and grapes whetted the appetites. At the Universalist church clam chowder with crackers and pickles tickled the palate. The principal course, chicken pie, celery, mashed potato, rolls, and jelly were served at the North church where the people began to arrive at the First Baptist church soon after five o'clock and from then until long after seven there was one mad chase from church to church for the different courses.
